The The Master of the Rolls. It is a fallacy to say, this is not settled. This part of the wife s fortune is as much included in the settlement as the 3000/. actually transferred. Whether he should receive any more was uncertain: if he did, it was to be upon the same terms. I cannot make a new settlement for them. If the time for performing the covenant had arrived, the Court would not let him get hold of the property, leaving his covenant unperformed: but, unfortunately for the wife, she has accepted a covenant; which is not to be performed till after...
